

Reporting an Incident to the Title IX Office

Individuals who have been affected by incidents of dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, sexual assault, sexual harassment discrimination may report them to the Title IX Office. You may choose whether to submit reports anonymously or to include your name and contact information. Regardless of how you choose to submit, all current student victims identified will be sent outreach and advocacy information/resources if possible. Victim's choices regarding alcohol/drug use at the time of an incident do not affect our treatment of their report. We will not consider conduct charges against a victim or bystander acting in good faith who may have used drugs and/or alcohol at or near the time of their assault/incident. Click here to report.
